

Renting Residential Property: What Tenants Need to Know

Real estate professionals have a regulatory requirement to present you with this consumer information before providing services to you.

This information from the Real Estate Council of BC explains the role of a real estate professional when you are considering renting a property.

The real estate professional who gave you this form represents the owner of this residential rental property.

While this real estate professional can provide some limited services to you as a prospective tenant of this rental property, they owe a duty of loyalty to the owner, and are working for the owner's best interests.

The Real Estate Council of BC is the legislated regulatory agency that works to ensure real estate professionals have the skills and knowledge to provide you with a high standard of service. All real estate professionals must follow rules that help protect consumers, like you.

We're here to help you understand your rights as a real estate consumer.

Keep this information page for your reference and scan the QR code or visit recbc.ca for more information about real estate transactions.

This form sets out what this real estate professional can and cannot do for you as a prospective tenant in relation to this rental property.

They cannot:

- ☒ give you advice on terms and conditions to include in a tenancy agreement
- ☒ negotiate on your behalf
- ☒ share any of the owner's confidential information with you

Because this real estate professional is working in the owner's best interests, they have a duty to share important information with the owner if disclosed by you including, for example: your motivations, your financial qualifications, and your preferred terms and conditions.

They can:

- ☒ share statistics and general information about the rental property market
- ☒ provide you with standard forms and contracts such as a rental application and/or tenancy agreement
- ☒ show the property
- ☒ assist you to fill out a tenancy agreement
- ☒ communicate your messages and present your offers to their client

YOUR NEW HOME – THE RENTING PROCESS

APPLICATION

Fill in the application for tenancy entirely and be sure to sign page 2.

Send it to us either by fax, email or in person. Applications usually take 2 business days to process, depending on how quickly references get back to us.

Once the application is approved, we will require the security damage deposit (1/2 month's rent) in a bank draft (not a personal cheque, as they take too long to clear and we're holding a suite for you).

LEASE DOCUMENTATION

Downtown Suites will prepare the lease documentation and email it to you for your perusal. You will be given the contact information for you to make an appointment to come to our office to sign the documents with us.

The lease will provide the BUILDING contact information for you to book your moving-in elevator in advance. Downtown Suites manages the condo suite you are moving into – not the building.

MOVE-IN INSPECTION / HAND-OVER OF KEYS

Once the lease is signed an appointment date will be made asap for the move-in inspection/handover of keys to you.

NOTE: If a tenant is currently residing in the suite, they have to book a move-out inspection/handover of keys appointment with us before we can book your move-in appointment. The move-out inspection with the current tenant is usually done on the last day of the month, sometimes earlier but not required of them to hand over keys before the last day of the month.

Should the suite be currently tenanted and they give keys back on the last day of the month, and you are moving in directly thereafter, we may have to arrange necessary cleaning, painting, repairs etc. once you are moved in. There simply is no time to have these things done in between. Hopefully, the preceding tenant would have been able to arrange cleaning prior to handing over the keys however, this sometimes does not happen.

If you absolutely do not want to move into a suite that isn't in 'hand over ready' condition, then you may wish to consider only those suites that are currently vacant.
